

THE QUARTERLY WRAP UP

APS MEERUT

JANUARY TO MARCH

Dear Class XII students,

"As you stand on the threshold of a new journey, always remember: 'Success is not final, failure is not fatal: It is the courage to continue that counts.' Your dedication, resilience, and achievements have been commendable. Embrace challenges, cherish memories, and strive for excellence in all you pursue. Carry the values instilled here and make us proud. Wishing you success and fulfilment in all your future endeavours."

Warm regards

DREAMLAND

One day, when Maithili returned home from school, she was more tired than usual. She told her mother that she was going to take a nap.

When she opened her eyes, she was surrounded by water. She looked around and saw that her legs were then, a tail. She started to swim around. She became tired after a period of time and closed her eyes.

She woke up and found a puppy licking her face. She found herself surrounded by lots of puppies, kittens, dogs and cats and started playing with them. Then, suddenly a dog jumped on her and she fell down.

When she got up, she was in Jelly land. Everything was jelly over. They even had a Jelly fountain. She ate so much jelly that she couldn't even stand.

When she heard a voice calling her, it was her father. She went downstairs. She saw her father but he was dressed as her mother, her mother was dressed like her father. She asked her for something to eat. She saw that her father was cooking food on water and adding lava to a tumbler. She went to sit but her brother removed the chair and she fell down.

When she woke up, she saw herself in her room right beside the bed on the ground. She laughed at herself knowing that it was all a dream.
